

The Old Adobe Mission Restoration Project

Yesterday is history; tomorrow is a mystery; today is God's gift.

Here at Our Lady of Perpetual Help we have been gifted with a rare opportunity—the restoration of The Old Adobe Mission in Old Town Scottsdale. It is an important part of the Catholic heritage of this city and our parish community. The Mission, long regarded as a beautiful example of Catholic mission architecture, both sacred and majestic, is in need of repair and restoration. It is the only remaining vestige of spiritual and community life among our earliest parishioners.

The goal of the project is to restore the Mission to its original state so that it may, once again, be the ark in which our community celebrates God and His people.

Help is urgently needed to complete the project. Please take a few minutes to answer the questions below. This survey may be returned to The Old Adobe Mission drop box in the church.

Here's how you can help. Please check all areas of interest.

1. Fundraising
2. Research, and develop a history of the Mission
3. Provide building or renovation skills
4. Volunteer time during and after the restoration
5. Marketing and publicity skills
6. Grant writer, assist in development of collateral materials
7. Assist in locating original Mission furnishings or artifacts
